RUSSIA NOW FORCED TO SIGN A SEPARATE PEACE

VERNON CASTLE, KILLED IN FLIGHT

VERNON CASTLE. MRS. VERNON CASTLE.

Flight Lieutenant Vernon Castle, of the British Flying Corps, formerly one of the best-known interpreters of modern dancing in the world, was killed at Benbrook Field, near Fort Worth, Texas, in a fall from his plane. He had been at the camp for several weeks acting as instructor to apprentice aviators for the United States under special arrangement with the British Government. Mrs. Vernon Castle was completely prostrated when informed of his death at her home in New York.

BOLSHEVIKI RULERS HAVE BEEN OUSTED

Such Is Report from Copenhagen, Which Says the New Government Is with Entente Allies.

Civil War Is Enveloping Russians, According to Belated Reports from Petrograd.

Germans in Russia Meet No Opposition. British Inflict Heavy Losses on Germans.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Further belated dispatches from Petrograd along with reports from neutral countries are filled with details of the civil war that is now enveloping Russia.

A Copenhagen dispatch today says rumors are current in Vasa, Finland, that the Bolshevik government in Petrograd has been overthrown by the social revolutionists under the leadership of M. Tchernoff.

Lenine and Trotzky are said to have escaped to Riga.

M. Tchernoff, who was chairman of the short-lived constituents assembly and served in the Kerensky cabinet, has been a strong advocate of land reform.

He admittedly is on the side of the Entente Allies. In an interview with the Associated Press correspondent on January 19 he said that while the Russian army probably could not be expected to fight to any great extent, it could act as a magnet to draw the German forces and prevent their being thrown to the western front, thus helping the Allies.

General Kaladine, hetman of the Don Cossacks, committed suicide, according to a Petrograd cable dated February 15th, when the Novo-Tcherkask government decided to resign and transfer its power to the local workmen's and soldiers' council.

RUSSIAN INVASION

The German armies have crossed the Dvina river and entered Dvinsk to deliver a blow at Great Russia in consequence of the Bolsheviks' refusal to meet Germany's terms of peace.

This advance is coupled with a movement of her forces further south into little Russia, or the Ukraine, to aid the Ukrainians in fighting the Bolsheviks.

This army, advancing from Kovel, already has occupied Lutsk. In command of this force is Von Linsingen. Neither of the invading armies has met any Russian opposition worth mentioning.

A Petrograd dispatch dated February 15th, says Leon Trotzky, the Bolshevik foreign minister, has been appointed food director with unlimited authority.

No casualties or damage resulted from the attempted air raid on London Monday night.

AERIAL ACTIVITY

Severe air fighting has been in progress on the British front. Many tons of bombs have been dropped by the Allied machines on airdomes and railroads. Sixteen German airplanes have been downed by the British.

Heavy casualties were inflicted on the Germans in an extensive raid by the British on the Flanders front. On the French front only heavy artillery fighting is reported, the infantry remaining quiet.

RUSSIAN LEADERS INSIST THEY MUST ACCEPT PROPOSALS MADE BY GERMANS AT BREST-LITOVSK

Invasion of Russian Territory by Hun Hordes Brings Speedy Decision to Sign Agreement of Peace on Almost Any Terms, It is Indicated by Dispatches From Petrograd.

GREATEST BATTLE OF THE WAR NOW IMPENDING ON THE WESTERN FRONT, WHERE HUN FORCES MASS

Mysterious Deadly Gas and Host of Tanks Will be Used by Germans in Terrific Onslaught, But Britons are Firm in Belief That German Army Will be Shattered.

LONDON, February 19.—(Associated Press Cable)—Russia now is forced to sign peace upon the conditions proposed by Germany, says an official Russian statement received here today.

The official statement was signed by Premier Lenine and Leon Trotzky, the foreign minister. It protests against the German resumption of the war and says the council of people's commissioners is forced to declare its readiness to sign a peace as dictated by the quadruple alliance at Brest-Litovsk.

It promises to give a detailed reply without delay to the German peace conditions.

HUNS TO USE MYSTERIOUS GASES AND TANKS IN EARLY OFFENSIVES

British Army Headquarters in France, February 19.—(Associated Press Cable)—The great German offensive on the western front may be expected to begin at any moment now, and so far as the British front is concerned, the main thrust will be made on the sector between Arras and St. Quentin. Tanks and "a new mysterious gas" will be employed by the enemy. These facts have become known through captured German prisoners and from information gleaned in other ways.

The plans of the German higher command are complete, and after many weeks of intensive training of assaulting troops they are ready to make the supreme and final effort which has been advertised in the past weeks.

Field Marshal Von Hindenburg and General Von Ludendorff appear to have realized that the old method of attack in which a long bombardment is employed are too well known to produce the results desired.

Much stress has been laid on the fact that tanks and new gas are to be used, leaving the infantry little to do but walk through the gaps and consolidate the positions captured.

The German troops have been trained to make long approach marches and storm enemy positions, after a short gas-shell bombardment.

The German infantry will rely on weight of numbers, masses of machine guns and mobile batteries to finish the work begun by the tanks and gas.

The coming battles perhaps will be the most sanguinary of the war, and they will be the most intense yet seen. But they will mark the beginning of the end, for if the Germans do not break clear through the allied lines—and they cannot—they virtually will be finished.

The Allied forces have a superiority of numbers both in men and guns, and no doubt is felt on this front as to the outcome.

FAVORS $2.50 FOR 1918 CROP

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, February 19.—A favorable report on the Gore bill to increase 1918 crop from $2.00 to $2.50 per the minimum price for wheat of the bushel was made today by the Senate Agricultural Committee.

8 MEN HURT ON MONTANA

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, February 19. — Eight men have been injured in an explosion of a cartridge case during target practice on the Cruiser Montana.

A brief report today carried no details of the accident and did not give the names of the men hurt.

5000 INDIANS IN U. S. SERVICE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, February 19. — Five thousand Indians have enlisted in the army or navy for the war. Exact figures are not obtainable, but that number is given as a safe estimate by Cato Sells, commissioner of Indian affairs in a letter made public today to the President of the American Indian League in New York.

"SAMMIES" PRACTICING WITH RIFLE IN FRANCE

RIFLE PRACTICE. A group of "Sammies" indulging in the peaceful sport of shattering clay birds on a rifle range in France. Shooting down the clay birds is excellent training for the eye and also quickens the aim, which is essential in trench warfare.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP IS JOHNSON IDEA

Declares Private Ownership Is Doomed, and Now Is Time to Take Over Railroads of the Land.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, February 19.—Permanent government ownership of railroads, rather than government control for the period of the war, was advocated by Senator Johnson of California today in a speech opposing the Senate draft of the railroad bill.

The California senator protested vigorously at the proposed rate of compensation to be paid the railroads under the provisions of the bill and also opposed the Senate plan to turn the railroads back to private management 18 months after the war.

In support of his declaration for government ownership Senator Johnson said the railroads had "broken down under the stress of the last few months that if the country is to have sufficient national transportation the roads must be nationalized and operated by one directing head," that the American people have paid the price of private ownership, and that "despite barriers or obstacles the nation is marching straight to the goal of public ownership and the people at last will come into their own."

NOTED LETTERS RETURNED TO U. S.

(Associated Press Correspondence)

London, February 3.—Two letters, one written by Thomas Jefferson and dated Monticello, April 17, 1821, and the other by General LaFayette and dated Lagange, June 28, 1827, have been presented to Consul-General Skinner in London as a gift to the American Government. The donor was H. B. Gross, a Philadelphia manufacturer, who until recently had a home here. The first concerns certain books which the correspondent recommended to Jefferson and which he declared he was endeavoring to obtain, while the letter written by LaFayette speaks of the invention of a bee live and of his interest in agricultural development generally. There is nothing to disclose the identity of the persons to whom the letters were addressed.

COLUMBUS MAN KILLS 4; SUICIDES

Columbus, O., February 19.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—After shooting and killing his wife, Lena, aged 38, his 6 year old daughter Annabel and sister-in-law, Miss Hazel Steele, aged 25, and so seriously wounding his mother-in-law, Mrs. Sallie Crut, that she is not expected to live, Forest Bigelow, aged 42, early this morning turned the gun on himself and died instantly. Domestic troubles are reported to have caused the shooting.

FOOD FOR GERMANS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, February 19.—The German reading public is being fed upon such reports about the American troops in France as the following which is circulated as a Geneva dispatch by a leading German news agency:

"In consequence of the increasing number of excesses by American soldiers in France, and particularly in Paris, the American government has stationed in France a large number of policemen who beat up with rubber clubs loaded with lead all disorderly American soldiers. Paris papers claim this has caused many incidents of the French interfering to prevent such brutality."

BEAUTY BALKS; WANTS DIVORCE

Mrs. Margaret H. Galitzki is suing her husband for divorce because he wanted her to lead a harem life and refused to let her be seen alone on the streets of Chicago. Mr. Lee Galitzki, Jr., said to his wife:

"You are too beautiful to be seen alone on the streets of Chicago, and must never go out unless I am with you."

Mrs. Galitzki informed him: "I may be pretty, but I am also human; I refuse to lead a harem life. This is the United States and not Turkey. A girl's face should not be her misfortune."

DRAFT TREATY IS COMPLETED

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, February 19. — Signing of the army draft treaty between Great Britain and the United States was announced today.

The new British ambassador, Earl Reading, affixed his signature to the document as his first official act in Washington. Under the treaty the United States may draft into the military service British subjects in this country between the ages of 20 and 45, while Great Britain may draft American citizens living within its jurisdiction between the ages of 21 and 31.

A treaty with Canada along the same lines has been signed.

MUCH SMALLPOX

Columbus, Feb. 19.—Smallpox is more prevalent in Ohio now than for five years. Reports being received by the state health department indicate that the total number of cases for January will reach 2,000. In December there were 1,131 cases. The highest number in any previous month in the past five-year period was 900. Only 15 of the 88 counties reported no cases in January. Only nine counties have been without the disease since the present epidemic began in September. Based on population, Henry county, with 292 cases, had the largest number of cases in January. Of these, 158 were at Napoleon, the county seat. Summit county reported 243 cases, with 179 in Akron.

The present situation is blamed by the state department upon mistakes of physicians in diagnosing the disease as chickenpox, in laxity of quarantine measures and lack of vaccination. The importation of negroes from the south is regarded by many as another reason for the prevalence of the disease.

PATTON WRITES TO FRIENDS HERE

Hotel Bayard, Paris
January, 24, 1918

Geo. O'Brien,
Washington C. H., Ohio.
Dear George:—

I am glad that the "Y" is running along in good shape. Having those big wood fires in the lobby sounds good to me. I have just changed to this hotel, and feel the first heat in a radiator that I've felt any place. It is not very cold, though. The winter in France broke a little over a week ago. I have not worn an overcoat of necessity since then.

I don't think there are as many troops here as when I came in the fall. There are a good many of Canadians and Anzacs here on leave.

They're all fine looking bunch of fellows, have a uniform that's great deal more comfortable than ours. It has a roll collar to it like civilian clothes, and looks just as neat as ours.

I am leaving here Sunday morning and will be with our boys Tuesday.

I am sure looking forward to seeing "Bob" Johnson, "Shorty" McClean, "Dad" Smith, Emmitt Hays and all the bunch. They've had a hard time during the winter months, I think, but are pretty well fixed by now.

Give my regards to all the fellows, and tell them to write often. I may not always be able to write a letter, but will answer with a postal card.

Very Truly,
Walter Patton.

REV. CHERRINGTON ON SOUTHERN TRIP

Arthur P. Cherrington, pastor Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, left yesterday evening for a southern trip. Stopping enroute for a short time at Atlanta, Ga., Jacksonville and St. Augustine, he will go to New Smyrna, Florida, where he will spend the first few days.

This affords a fine opportunity for a very interesting and educational trip as Mr. Cherrington never before has been in the south. And it is particularly fine for him as he goes as the special guest of a former parishoner who has stipulated that his guest is to be at no expense whatever as to railroad fare, hotel bills etc. This is not the only time the present pastor of Grace Church has enjoyed the gracious hospitality of this gentleman. In 1915 he presented Mr. Cherrington with a trip free of all expense to the San Francisco Exposition.

The Official Board of Grace church cordially voted its pastor a furlough covering two Sundays. Next Sunday, Rev. Noah W. Good, of Columbus, Successor of Rev. W. H. Lewis as the superintendent of the Protestant Hospital, will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening. On Sunday March 3rd Dr. Allen H. Norcross, former pastor of Grace Church, is expected to preach both morning and evening.

The injured man was removed to the McClellan Hospital in Xenia, where the remnant of the hand was amputated.

Savannah, Georgia

Savannah has shaken off the desire to remain as it was and has become ambitious to grow into a big and prosperous commercial and industrial city and that ambition is being realized. Savannah is growing and improving. Its business blocks, its parks and public squares, its splendid streets and side walks and its well stocked and up-to-date stores stamp it, indelibly, in the traveler's mind as a thriving city of the north or east rather than a seaport of the old south. While Charleston sleeps contentedly and lives in the dreamland of the past, beautiful in the memories it recalls, Savannah is forging to the front. The business men are considering any and every proposal which holds out promise of a greater Savannah.

The city is making strenuous efforts to secure the export trade of a vast rich section much of which, is properly tributary to Charleston. Savannah is offering inducements to business and business men and the city is prospering.

Built on the low marshy ground which lays about the mouth of the river the city takes its name from the character of the surrounding territory. Down in this old country they call the low wet places "Savannahs." We call them swamps.

Georgia's seaport city is well laid out with broad streets and avenues, beautiful trees and shrubbery, has nature as a formidable ally in work of creating a city beautiful.

Just north of the sandy wastes of Florida and south of the broken lands of the Carolinas, Savannah is ideally located where, with a little care, the palms thrive, and the magnolia trees will grow more beautiful even than further north. The swampy lands respond readily to the demands of man and produce, under intelligent direction, bountiful crops and luxuriant flowers and vegetation. Savannah, combining the beauties of nature, the industry and resourcefulness of man, ambitions to play an important part in the domestic and foreign commerce of the day, with the determination to accomplish its objective is developing, rapidly into a beautiful and prosperous city.

Unless the federal government, now in control of the transportation lines of the country, in order to bring about a more prompt and, in every way, more efficient distribution of import and export traffic, impelled by the wholesome rule of the greatest good to the greatest number, decrees that Charleston shall be the seaport city of the south, Savannah will secure that honor and that profit and Charleston will be left to its memories and traditions.

If business men in Savannah and in the south are left free to work out the problem, Georgia's seaport will go ahead by leaps and bounds to take its place along side of New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore and other great Atlantic ports. To Charleston or to Savannah must pass the scepter of power and wealth and the interested folks, who can guess what the government will do in designating main arteries of trade and outlets, can pick up a fortune by getting in on the ground floor.

Either Charleston or Savannah is destined to be one of the nation's great seaports—one of the world's great seaports—and indications now favor Savannah. By all the rules of the great game of commerce as it is played, the winner's stakes should come to Savannah. Only the necessity of the time, only the possibility of governmental interference can take them away and place them in the hand of Charleston.

Savannah still retains evidences of the old days. There are hundreds of negro servants many of them grown white in their master's service, there are still the horse and carriage conveyances of the old families. There are still some of the old warehouses of anti-bellum days. Still the happy care free negroes with their two wheeled drays and carts, still the cotton bales, numerous reminders of a past day, but one can clearly see that the old order is passing rapidly away and the new order is in control.

In Savannah as in Charleston the trains still run by the terminal station and back in but even that the progressive men promise to remedy in good time.

Savannah hotels and eating houses compare favorably with the most up-to-date city of the north and it is business men who patronize them liberally and maintain them. They do not depend, for their life upon the caprice of the surfeited and unappreciative tourist train, here today and gone tomorrow, who may smile this year with favor upon one section and frown upon it next year leaving wrecked fortunes in its wake.

Savannah is a substantial real city, a beautiful city and a city which, unless all signs fail, has a brilliant future and that future near at hand.

Poetry For Today

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC.
Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of his terrible swift sword,
His truth is marching on.

CHORUS.
Glory! glory! Hallelujah!
Glory! glory! Hallelujah!
Glory! glory! Hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watchfire of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps,
His day is marching on.

I have read a fiery gospel writ in burnished rows of steel
"As ye deal with by contempters, so with you my grace shall deal;"
Let the Hero, born of woman, crush the serpent with His heel, Since God is marching on.

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men before His judgment seat;
O be swift, my soul, to answer Him! be jubilant, my feet!
Our God is marching on.

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom that transfigured you and me;
As He died to make men holy, let us die to make men free, while God is marching on.

In accord with their annual custom the Daughters of the American Revolution will celebrate Washington's birthday on Friday, the twenty-second. The Chapter calendar has recorded a number of beautiful and elaborate affairs honoring the father of our country. The afternoon party, of Friday, at the Federated Club rooms, will be on a quieter scale, more in touch with the spirit of the hour, but a charming musical and literary program, is being prepared by Miss Forest Allen and Mrs. John McFadden, and the affair promises much pleasure.

Each daughter is privileged to bring a guest.

A beautiful luncheon was given by the members of the R. C. Surgical dressings class in compliment to the headquarters instructor, Miss Martha Campbell, at the Cherry Hotel, Monday.

The luncheon was served in the annex, where tables were appropriately arranged in the form of a cross. A central embellishment of pink flowers and greenery adding to dainty table appointments in adding attractive features.

After enjoying the delicacies of the menu Miss Campbell made a little talk expressing the pleasure she had felt in the week's work and complimenting the work done by the class.

Miss Edith Gardner, responding for the class, presented Miss Campbell with a beautiful corsage bouquet, as a token of the admiration each member feels for the charming woman who is giving of her trained services purely for love of the cause.

Mrs. R. C. Kyle, of Columbus, a sister of Miss Campbell, was also a guest.

Tonight's Browning Club program will be present as outlined in the year book by the department of Literature. Miss Doris Kelley will favor the club with a piano solo.

Dr. A. M. Bush was called to Columbus on professional business Tuesday.

Miss Martha Campbell, surgical dressings Red Cross instructor, who finished work with a local class Monday morning, returned to her home in Columbus Monday evening. Her sister, Mrs. R. C. Kyle, who is also a surgical dressings instructor of the Columbus chapter, and came down for the close of the series, also returned to Columbus.

Mr. E. B. Hukill is down from Columbus attending to business interests.

Mrs. Isaac Upp of Lakeview Avenue, who has been seriously ill for the past week, is showing slight improvement.

Miss Jean Palmer went to Columbus Monday to see "The Rambler Rose" at the Hartman.

Mrs. Morris Baker is entertaining her sister, Mrs. G. G. Whitehead, of Columbus, and brother, Mr. E. Lewis McCarty, of Delaware, who is leaving the first of the week for Georgia to enter the ground aviation school.

VEHICLES MUST CARRY LIGHTS

The Motor Cop in Ross county, beginning next week, will enforce the state law requiring all horse-drawn vehicles to carry a light after night-fall, and will arrest all violators wherever found in Ross county.

In this county no definite steps have been taken to enforce the law, but this may be done in the very near future. At the present time if an unlighted vehicle causes a serious smash-up on the owner of the vehicle is responsible for the damages and liable to heavy fine under the state law.

Lights on all horse-drawn vehicles is compulsory under the state law, and most Fayette citizens have complied with this law.

FORMER WIFE GETS TWO SMALL CHILDREN

George Shephard appeared before Probate Judge Allen Tuesday morning in a hurried effort to prevent his former wife from taking their two minor children with her back to her home in Licking county.

He was referred to an attorney, a writ of habens corpus was issued and upon investigation, was dismissed because the Licking county court had given the mother the custody of the children, and she had come to this county and took charge.

The woman was permitted to depart with the youngsters, much to the disappointment of the father, who had neglected to appear before the court to contest the claim when the case was heard in Licking county.

FIRST DRIVE FOR SALE OF SAVINGS STAMPS MARCH 5

The first of the series of drives for the sale of War Thrift and Savings stamps in Fayette county will be conducted by the Fayette County War Council on Tuesday, March 5th, and the organization will complete the work throughout the county in a single day.

It is expected that the response will be liberal, and that every citizen who can afford to invest in thrift or savings stamps—and this includes virtually everyone—will do the part expected of them and the part that every true American citizen must do in order to help win the war.

As an investment the War Savings Stamps offer an even better return than the Liberty Loan Bonds, according to an authority on the matter, and the sale of the stamps in large quantities is expected.

The plan will be explained in detail, and every citizen made acquainted with the stamps, so that there can be no misunderstanding, and so that all may realize the importance of investing in the stamps.

The funds derived from the stamps go for the same purpose as the Liberty Bonds—to help win the war.

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

The class in surgical dressings completed the course under Miss Martha Campbell, of the Columbus Chapter Red Cross, Monday morning and its members are competent to act as work room managers and direct those who will take up this branch of Red Cross work.

Miss Campbell proved an exceptionally fine instructor and gave to the class the full course in standard dressings in both muslin and gauze.

The limited time in which the training was given meant a strenuous week and the new work will not be taken up until next Monday, with it starts off at the surgical dressing's work shop in the Y. M. C. A. with the aim to put out the best work possible.

Miss Edith Gardner is surgical dressing's chairman.

All women who possibly can should devote some time to this work. There is no part of R. C. more important than the making of surgical dressings to which many soldiers will owe their lives. It is one of the live duties demanded by this war and the limited number who have taken the course and qualified as managers, can do comparatively a small amount of work unless many women come to their aid.

Since the work does not start until Monday the time of registration is extended and any who are willing to take up this work are asked to register at Red Cross Headquarters at Memorial Hall.

One week will be devoted to gauze work, which is very particular, and the alternate week to muslin. The following schedule of hours and assignment of work room managers has been arranged.

Monday 1:30 to 3:30 Mesdames Lucy Ginn, Scott Hopkins, Chas. E. Mark, Misses Ruth Smithers, Iva Larimer. Monday from 3:30 to 6:00 Miss Bell's Unit, Mrs. Anna Bush, James Jess Blackmer, Sam Katz.

Tuesday 1:30 to 3:30 Mesdames G. L. Spragg, H. E. Daugherty, Frank C. Parrett, Ray Maynard; 3:30 to 6:00 Miss Bell's Unit, Mrs. Anna Bush, Coffman, Mrs. James Hagerty.

Wednesday, entire afternoon Mesdames H. C. Ireland, Coffman, Katz, Henry Pearce, Blanche Arthur Creamer, Miss Jean Howat.

Thursday, entire afternoon Miss Mary Craig, Mrs. Coffman, Miss Jessie Mantell, Miss Ethel Calvert, Mrs. E. J. Strobel.

While these women will be in charge as assigned all the members of the class will also be in attendance at the work shop to assist when ever it is possible.

Excellent Report From Young Business Women's Unit.

The Young Business Women's Unit met Monday night with the President, Mrs. Valentine Hoppess, who cordially extended the hospitality of her home.

The report showed an excellent one month's work accomplished by this new organization. Fifteen sweaters, sixteen bed shirts and five pairs of socks have been completed and other work well underway.

Members of the unit expressed appreciation of the courtesy of the President, and of the work of Lester Bowman and George Rhoads in painting and framing their motto.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES PRECEDE INTERMENT

The funeral services of Mr. Austin Baughn, held at the Sugar Creek Baptist Church, Monday afternoon, were markedly impressive, conducted by Rev. G. L. Hart, of the First Baptist church of this city and Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage, of the First Presbyterian church.

The church was crowded with a large family connection and friends from all over the county, who wished to pay a last tribute of regard to the man whom everyone knew as "Capt" Baughn.

Adding to the touching beauty of the services was an undercurrent of soft music played by Miss Mary Baughn, a quartet, Misses Ada Woodward, Daisy Cockerill, Messrs. R. R. Kibler and Rankin Paul sang affectingly "Sometime We'll Understand," "Good Night" and "Saved by Grace."

The memoir was a very beautiful appreciation written by a life long friend, Mr. H. D. Chaffin.

The floral remembrances were in great number, one of the most beautiful pieces a pillow of shaded pink tulips, white carnations and narcissi from the wife and son. Another special design was the gift of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Sugar Creek Baptist church.

A number of relatives and friends accompanied the family to the Washington cemetery for the burial service.

The pall-bearers were the six brothers, Messrs. Mont, Noah, Roscoe, Charles, Elmer and John Baughn.

Relatives here from a distance were, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Jones, of Zanesville; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Baughn and family, of S. Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. John Baughn and family, of Jamestown; Mr. and Mrs. Mont Baughn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Simms, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Simms and family, Dr. Earl Simms and family, of Columbus and Mrs. Silas Draise of Mt. Sterling.

MEMOIR.

Austin Baughn, son of Judson and Margaret Baughn, was born in Fayette County, Ohio, November 25th, 1860.

He was the second oldest son in a family of eleven children, all grown to manhood and womanhood, and the first one of them to be "drafted" for the life beyond.

On January 22, 1891, he was united in marriage to Ida May Smith, daughter of Jacob Smith, and thus two of the most prominent pioneer families of Fayette county were brought into close relationship.

He united with the Sugar Creek Baptist Church in December, 1895, under the preaching of Rev. Stone, and he was called by the great Commander of all on Saturday, February 16th, 1918, for service in the Heavenly life—his work on earth being done.

A son, Roy, aged 23, will ever tenderly cherish the memory of his father, in the paternal concern, the sacrifices made, and the interest in the higher education of his boy.

Austin Baughn leaves a legacy in this young man, now grown to manhood, greater than money or lands—a protector of his mother and a power for good and great influence in the community.

Austin Baughn was known and always hailed as "Cap." Baughn, this nickname being given him when a child, on account of his jovial and jolly disposition; and this same disposition and nickname he possessed until his death. He was the most even tempered man I ever knew, and never complained because of the usual difficulties one meets in ordinary life, and he always smiled his troubles away.

Most boys sow some wild oats, un mindful of the harvest which is sure to ripen, and must be reaped; but who can recall a single wrong wilfully perpetrated, a deception purposely planned, or an injustice intentionally done, by this man. And through all eternity he can meet all those whom he ever knew, without an apology or a blush of shame.

No personal ambition, other than to be a real man among his fellow men, and to provide bountifully for the comforts of his home—especially the education of his only son—and no selfish aggrandizement ever moved or prompted him to swerve from the honest and conscientious consideration of all men.

Austin Baughn leaves behind him the example of a "home man." He sacrificed the pleasures of Lodges and Societies, for his home devotion. He gave up the "passing hours" of associations of men, that he might stay at home with his family; and willingly and cheerfully has he toiled and striven, for the comforts and pleasures of those he leaves behind at this time. He was born and reared in sight of this church. Always attended Sunday School and church at this place, when possible,—was one of its members; and today very fittingly, all that is mortal of him, is brought to the Church of his father and mother for a last farewell.

Having lived a life worth living,—a life commendable in the sight of God and man, an enviable inheritance of Peace is his portion, to enjoy to the fullest extent, without a fear of corruption from moth or rust, or anxiety of interrupted possession.

With clean hands he reaches forth to his father and mother who have awaited his coming, and with no cloud of guilt upon his face he greets them "over there." Assured that memory will hold no fears, and recollections

Try this recipe for Crullers and Doughnuts—you can help save the Nation's fats when you use Mazola for deep frying

MAZOLA

Mazola is a vegetable oil—pressed from corn.

It is the ideal medium for deep frying, sautéing, or shortening, because it is not only economical—it gives such splendid quality.

Crullers and Doughnuts

3 1/2 cups bread flour
1 cup sugar
1 cup sour milk
2 tablespoons Mazola
2 eggs
1/2 teaspoon salt and ginger
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg and cinnamon
1/2 to 3/4 teaspoon baking soda
Sift all dry ingredients except soda 3 times. Beat eggs, add milk, soda and Mazola, pour on dry ingredients. Mix well, turn on floured board, roll or pat in 1/2 inch sheet and let stand a few minutes to rise. Cut and fry in hot Mazola.

MAJOR ALLEN MAY SOON BE COLONEL

Reports from Circleville indicate that there will be a number of promotions in the old Fourth Ohio Infantry in the near future, and that Major Rell G. Allen, who is now the ranking Major of the old Fourth which is part of the Rainbow division, may be promoted to Lieutenant Colonel, succeeding Lieutenant Colonel Florence of Circleville, who may succeed Colonel Benson Hough.

Rumor in Washington has it, on good authority, it is said, that Colonel Benson W. Hough, colonel of the old Fourth Ohio regiment, has been recommended for a brigadier generalship. Colonel Hough, adjutant general of Ohio under Governor Willis, has a splendid record since reentering the active service, and those familiar with the case are inclined to give credence to the report.

Senator Harding's secretary, in response to a telegram of inquiry from Ohio, is said to have sought confirmation of the report at the war department, but at the adjutant general's office was to the effect that such a recommendation has not come in, although it may be on the way from General Pershing.

Major General W. A. Mann, formerly in command of the "Rainbow Division" stated upon his return to the United States a few weeks ago, that the Fourth Ohio was the best regiment in the division and that Colonel Hough was one of the best officers he had ever known.

THE OLDER MEN ARE MAKING GOOD

About two years ago, a man of excellent ability was forced, by reason of his age, to accept a menial job with a large manufacturing company. He was physically fit and mentally active, but 45 years old. His matured energy was considered worth only $20 a week by his reluctant employer. It was argued that a man without a position at his age must necessarily be of little value to a progressive business house. Two years ago the generality of business houses were of this opinion.

Today thousands of our younger business men have gone or are about to go to war. Their places are in many cases not yet filled. Some manufacturers have reluctantly let down the barriers against age and accepted older men than is their custom. These manufacturers are astonished. They have discovered that older men, taken in the aggregate, do more work than the younger men they used to employ.

The man mentioned above is now a highlyvalued member of his house, drawing a salary of $100 a week, and is assured of steady work and a pension in later years. His present employer is so much delighted with him that he means to take the first vacation he has dared to enjoy in 15 years.

The war has taught us much. It has taught that youthful energy is essential to some things. But it has also taught that maturity brings with it an equilibrium, a poise, which likewise has its advantage.—Milwaukee Journal.

SIX DOGS NABBED BY SPECIAL OFFICER

The first half-day's work in looking after the untagged dogs in the city and county, netted just an even half-dozen canines for the pound, and they were impounded for the four days required before they will be disposed of.

It required only a very short time to pick up the half dozen dogs and Deputy Sheriff Nelson believes that it will require very little time to increase the half dozen to a half hundred or even a hundred, in this city alone.

The pound is located near the fertilizer factory, and if the imprisoned dogs are not identified in the four days allowed from the time they are captured the dogs will be killed and their carcasses given to the fertilizer plant.

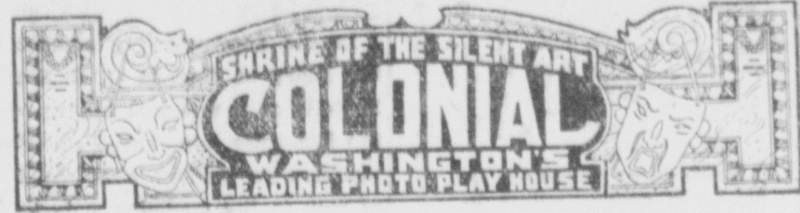

Citizens who value their dogs must see that the dogs wear a collar with the license tag upon it to insure the safety of the animal, as the law provides for the impounding of all dogs not tagged.

HOLLAND EXPORTS INTO GERMANY

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Amsterdam, February 2.—The question whether, and to what extent, Holland is responsible for the continuation of the war by her food supplies to Germany has caused a controversy in the Dutch newspapers. C. J. K. van Aalst, head of the Netherlands Overseas Trust, in his recent open letter to President Wilson, pleaded for the removal of the American government's embargo on food shipments to Holland; one of his arguments being that the continuation of Holland's trade with the Central Powers, while of vital importance to Holland itself, is of small account, so far as aid and comfort to the Entente's enemies is concerned.

An article in the Amsterdam Telegraaf from Entente side—of American origin, it is hinted—replies to Mr. van Aalst's arguments by showing that, according to official Dutch statistics for 1916, there were exported from Holland to Germany of potatoes, potato flour, butter, eggs, rice, cheese, margarine, sugar, fish, meat, fruits, peas and beans 918,355 tons, sufficient to feed 1,200,000 soldiers for a year.

The same authority calculates that in 1916 Holland imported from overseas 518,251 tons cereals, flour, cocoa, rice and dried fruits and comes to the conclusion that Holland exported more than twice the quantity she needed for the sustenance of her own population—hence the restrictions placed upon these imports by the United States government.

CAPT. HARDWAY IS PLEASED WITH NEW DELAWARE CO. K.

In the accompanying extract from the Diary of Captain O. E. Hardway he tells of the formal taking over of the Delaware Company, K, and of his pleasure in finding a splendid type of men in the company, a large number of them being college men. He also states that when he reached the camp where the men were stationed he found Lt. Billie E. Paul in charge. The Diary follows:

Monday, January 17.—Was up at the usual hour and packed up my baggage so it would be ready for the wagon when it came to take it over to my new station. Bush also packed up his baggage as he was going to the same place, but to a different company. Bush was all put out about it, as he wanted to go with me or else stay where he was.

"We were ready at 8 o'clock when the wagon came, and we both left for our new stations. I hate to leave my old company but of course I had nothing to do except to go, as I had been ordered.

Captain Peck had not arrived to take over my outfit when I left but he arrived sometime during the evening. When I arrived at my new company I found Billie already on the job. It seems rather funny for he and I to be soldiering together again. I did not find things as I left them in my own company, but I went to work trying to straighten things out as best I could. I find that there are more college men in this company than there is in most other companies, and therefore expect it to be the best company in the regiment soon. That is, if I can possibly make it so.

The C. O. expects results and of course I feel that I have to produce results. I also find that they have a good bunch of young officers in this outfit, which leads me to believe that the company will be sure to come across in great shape. Find that they are all ambitious and willing to do anything that I ask them.

Tuesday, January 8.—Began the day with making an entirely new reorganization of the company, rearranging the platoons, rearranging the men in their billets, and seeing that each bunch had access to a good fire so they could keep warm and comfortable. This the men seemed to appreciate and everything seems to be going along all right. Had Billie working all day on this.

Can't help thinking of the boys over in the other company the way they acted when I told them that I had to leave them. They seemed so disappointed when they heard the news.

The officers in this outfit are: Beers, Paul, Rees, Donnan, Anderson, Hutchcraft, Palmer, McLeod and myself. Looks like we had plenty of officers. We have a splendid mess. We have a French woman to do our cooking and she is a splendid cook. We have a mess at the school teacher's house, and his wife does our cooking. We draw our rations from the company, that is, the most of them. When we want anything extra, we get it from her. For instance, if we want a rabbit or chicken she gets it and we pay her for it, and we also pay her for the cooking. I don't know just how much she is paid per week, as they had the mess running when I got here. I have a good room with a stove in it. Lt. Beers and I are in a room together, and it is the most comfortable one I have yet seen in this town.

I have received no mail from home for three weeks, but I understand that there is quite a bunch over here for us, and will be delivered as soon as they can get it sorted out for us. Hear that there are two carloads of Christmas presents for us if they ever get them to us. I have only received one box from home so far, but I understand that there is one or two more on the road. Think that we are going to have a real snow as it was snowing when we came in this evening.

WILL OPEN BARBER SHOP AND POOL ROOM

The room formerly occupied by the Hughey Confectionery store, in the Judy block on Main street, has been leased by Tom Murray and Elmer L. Tracey, who in the near future, will open a thoroughly modern barber shop, billiard room and cigar store.

The room is to be thoroughly modernized in every way, attractively decorated and equipped for the purposes mentioned.

Mr. Murray has spent much of the past few years with a circus but has resigned his position with the show and expects to devote his entire time to the new business. Mr. Tracey will have charge of the barber shop.

It is expected the new place will be opened for business about March first.

GOVERNMENT AFTER THE COAL THIEVES; HEAVY FINES AHEAD

Uncle Sam is taking a hand in the prosecution of coal thieves, and men who come up before the United States authorities on charges of stealing coal will be given a fine which will scare them out of their wits when compared with the usual light fines meted out by justices and mayors.

At Bainbridge recently a number of alleged coal thieves were turned over to the Federal authorities and are now out on $500 bond awaiting their appearance for final hearing.

Attorney Lee Rankin of this city represented the D. T. & I. railroad in the case, and it is his opinion that inasmuch as the railroads are now under government control, all cases of coal stealing should be brought before the United States Commissioners instead of before the usual authorities.

In the cases at Bainbridge recently the men, when taken before the usual authorities, entered pleas of guilty and drew $1 and the costs.

The federal authorities promptly took the matter in hand and the fellows will soon know what the price of coal is when it is fixed by the government.
